This is an ideal training for Scouts taking on the new Troop leadership role of Outdoor Ethics Guide, Adults who will be lead activities in Outdoor Ethics with Packs, Troops, and Venture Crews, and older Scouts looking at participating in High Adventure activities. Be an Outdoor Ethics advocate and help reduce the impact while camping, hiking, backpacking and other outdoor recreation. Additionally, this will fulfill requirement 5 of the Outdoor Ethics Awareness Award for Boy Scouts and Venturing program.

Participants will be challenged to consider how you, your Crew, Troop or Pack, make ethical decisions when recreating in the outdoors. Additionally, the course will cover the steps to complete the BSA Outdoor Ethics program.

This is not the Leave No Trace Trainer Course (16-hour course), but it will provided participants with hands on experience in teaching Outdoor Ethics. The training codes for this course are: S110 youth, S111 adults.
